DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

- 1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - Claims 1-16 and 21-24 are drawn to a RAM memory device having a command block with means for providing a row signal having active state in response to a write command, ...etc., and an array of cells with a selected row is opened for access in response to the active state of the row signal, etc., classified in class 365, subclass 189.01.
  - II. Claims 17-20 are drawn to a method of operating/writing a RAM device, classified in class 365, subclass 194.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

- 2. Inventions I and I are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case,
- 3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter and/or classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Viet Q. Nguyen whose telephone number is (571) 272-1788. The examiner can normally be reached on 7am-6pm (EST).
